

The Key to Christmas

Little Elf desperately wants to be employed in Santa's Workshop. He wants to be a toymaker and make the toys for all the girls and boys.

But... the head of the workshop, Miss Key To Christmas, doesn't think the little Elf quite understands the meaning of Christmas and sends him off on an adventure to discover the key to Christmas.

With help from a very amusing Crocodile, Hand, Cow and of course the charismatic Key To Christmas herself, little Elf is soon in the Christmas spirit. Santa is so impressed with little Elf's enthusiasm that he asks him not to be a toymaker but one of his personal helpers. Little Elf could not be happier and becomes one of Santa's Helpers.

There is colourful scenery and props, adorable puppets, songs to sing, stories, clever illusions, loads of audience participation and of course it just wouldn't be Christmas without a visit from the grand old man himself, Santa Claus.

The Key to Christmas is the ideal way to commence, continue or conclude your Christmas celebrations each year.

What pre-schools have said:

Excellent. Very funny and kids totally engaged!

Isobel Gowenlock. Elanora Heights Community Pre-school.

The children enjoyed the whole show. Teachers liked that it had a range of things – singing, jokes and audience participation.
