To Be or What To Be

Opening minds to explore possibilities.

Using magic, mime, laughter, songs and the element of surprise, To Be or What To Be explores issues such as ethics, safety, career choices and problem solving.

In the tradition of the great travelling clowns of Europe, Frank Ozo charms and entralls children of all ages with his hilarious antics and cheeky wit.

Frank has misplaced his magician's hat. Surely it's in his magic hat box but while hat after hat are produced out of this seemingly empty box, none of them are his magician's hat. What is a magician to do without his magic hat? Frank's search for his elusive magician's hat takes the audience on a journey of choices and responsibilities while tackling the age old question of what to be when you grow up.

Variety best describes this very funny vaudeville style show. Frank juggles balls, scarves and hats and has objects appear and disappear right before your eyes.

In an hilarious sequence Mr Punch is frustrated that he can't find a job. After an encounter with a wayward crocodile he discovers his true vocation and gets a job working with reptiles at the local zoo, illustrating everyone is good at something.
