

GHANA HAVE SOME FUN

Take them on a journey to Africa.

Ghana Have Some Fun incorporates audience participation, singing, dancing and drumming to leave audiences feeling exhilarated and inspired as well as enlightened in the ways and culture of Africa and more particularly Ghana.

Jonas teaches students words from the local languages, Ga Tui Mzema and Effutu and with their newly learnt words Jonas gets the entire audience participating in traditional call and response songs.

Students learn how many traditional African instruments are made from easy to find natural resources.

Shekere “pronounced She-Ka-Re” is the name of the African percussion instrument made from the dried fruit of the gourd vine and loosely covered with a wide decorative band of beads. The sound is produced by holding the outer cover of beads in one hand and twisting the gourd across them or simply shaking the entire instrument.

Add to all this Jonas’ wide smile and infectious laugh and what you get is a truly memorable, lively and uplifting, feel good show.

Jonas Tandoh was born in Ghana and has been a full time musician since the age of seventeen.

He has played in numerous bands and toured across Australia supporting bands such as Osibisa and Ziggy Marley and has still found time to tour to schools Australia wide for the past twenty years.

What pre-schools have said:

Wonderful! Such fun to be had by all. Jonas was amazing at involving all of our children, including our babies throughout the performance. The children danced and sang with so much enthusiasm, Jonas had the children mesmerised through his story. Would highly recommend to all!

Rebecca Jobson. Prestons World of Learning. Prestons. NSW.

Jonas had all the children involved, clapping and dancing. The older children aged 3-5 years listened to his story and helped play the drums. Well worth organising.

Jo Mitchell. Loxton District Children’s Centre. Loxton. SA.

It was lovely how the children could interact and be actively involved. Jonas picked appropriate songs for the children and was very funny and entertaining. Thank you.

Mel Famlonga. Chuckles Childcare Centre. Warnbro. WA.
