

Playing With Poems is a totally visual and hilarious
forty plus minutes of poetry fun and games.

There are poems your little ones may be familiar with like

There Was an Old Woman Who Swallowed a Fly

as well as poems about things that infants find fascinating like Dinosaurs, Christmas and Slime.

Costumes, puppets and props are all used continuously throughout the whole show ensuring the young audience's attention is maintained from beginning to end.

So shake up your day and get your children
Playing With Poems.

What pre-schools have said:

Playing with Poems had all the children engaged and interested. It was age appropriate and funny for all the children. The props were great. Hugh was funny and very professional. He enjoyed engaging with the children and responded greatly towards them.

Courtney Ward. Community Kids Early Education Centre. Ingleburn. NSW.

A really good session. Hugh was exceptional and very interactive.
